GC Stretch Of River Road to Open Dec. 1

FA RT. 151 Completion
Expected in Six Weeks
Barring Bad Weather

The new stretch of Federal Aid Route 151 (The Great River Road) skirting the western edge of Granite City from north of Ponton road to Niedringhaus avenue will be opened by about Dec. 1, unless bad weather upsets the present construction timetable, R. O. E. E. Krone, district Illinois Highway Department engineer at French Village, said today.

All paving work on the 3.39 mile stretch of four-lane highway has been completed and remaining shoulder work and connections with Route 3 at West Ponton road and about a mile north of Ponton road should be completed within the next month, Krone said. He said the Dec. 1 completion date is subject to weather conditions and could change if delays result from prolonged inclement weather.

Work now is underway on construction of an intersection connection of FA 151 with Route 3 at West Ponton road. Most of the paving work has been completed at that point. Ponton road has been closed for 500 feet east of Route 3 since the work started two weeks ago.

Contract of $24 million. Construction of the highway is being done by Sangamo Construction Co. of Springfield under a contract of $24 million awarded in July 1968. At that time a completion date of October 1969 was projected, but weather conditions and strikes have set the work back about six weeks to two months. Granite City will have access streets to the new highway at North street, Rock road, West 30th street and Niedringhaus avenue at the Army Depot gate. Any further extension of FA 151 southward is expected to await lifting of the federal freeze on allocation of highway funds for projects in Madison and St. Clair counties.

The fund freeze, based on federal contentions that not enough minority employees are used on construction jobs and that construction costs in the Madison-St. Clair county area are higher than those in any other part of the state, was initiated in the summer of 1968 at a time that barely eased uping up the Great River section of FA Route 151 now being completed. The contract for that section already had been let when the freeze was ordered.

Right of Way Bought
The state highway department already has purchased right-of-way for the southern extension of FA 151, from Niedringhaus avenue to Venice where it will connect with the new Broadway underpass now under construction, Krone said that work on that project now is several months behind schedule.

First indication of a thaw in the 18-month fund freeze order came earlier this week with approval by federal public road officials of a guardrail project for the Great River road in the Alton area.

County To Sponsor Area Sewer Survey

Federal Grant to be Sought to Determine Feasibility in Area

A feasibility study to create a sanitary sewer system for the four Quad-City area townships was authorized by the Madison county board of supervisors at its regular meeting Wednesday morning.

The board adopted a resolution signed by the local township supervisors which authorizes that the county be used as an agent in applying for federal funds to finance the study.

The supervisors, Harry Briggs of Namekoi, Nelson Hagauer of Granite City, Walter Sparks of Chouteau and Arthur Moore of Venice, were appointed to a committee to contact an attorney and an engineer to serve without compensation until a grant is obtained.

The application will be filed with the Housing & Urban Development Agency's regional office in Chicago.

No Cost to County
Other members of the county board were assured that the study for sewers from small, individual governmental bodies but would consider the county board as the eligible body for negotiations.

Briggs explained that he and Namekoi township Attorney William Schooley had conferred with HUD authorities in Chicago about a study for sewers in Namekoi township, and were told that the federal government would by-pass revenue from small, individual governmental bodies but would consider the county board as the eligible body for negotiations.

Robert Ford of Wood River township suggested that his township, also beset with sanitary sewer problems, be included in the feasibility study.

Sparks explained that expansion of the area involved in the first county-sponsored study (Continued on page 4, col. 3)

Venice School Tax Vote Saturday

40-Cent Increase being Sought; Polling Place
In Grade School Gym

Voter approval of a proposed 40-cent rate ceiling increase in the education fund will be sought by the Venice board of education in a referendum Saturday. The increase would boost the current education rate maximum from $1.65 to $2.05 on $100 assessed valuation.

Venice school district residents will be able to vote in the special election between noon and 7 p.m. Saturday at the Venice grade school gymnasium, the only polling place.

Board members and other opponents of the tax rate increase note little organized activity against the proposal. The issue has received endorsement by the Venice Local 689 of the American Federation of Teachers, AFL-CIO, with union officials advising parents of students by letter of their position.

Favorable Reaction
School district officials meeting this month with civic and community groups report the reaction, in general, appears to be favorable to the tax increase proposal.

Urging Venice voters to support the referendum, Leo A. Davignon, board president, today noted, "In common with most schools of the nation, the Venice school system is faced with the problem of providing expanding quality education on a budget which is steadily being eaten away by rising costs of materials, equipment and salaries."

"In many ways, citizens of the Venice school district have enjoyed a unique position for several years. There has been no request for a tax increase in the past five years."

Hospital Annex Cornerstone Ceremony Set for Saturday

(Related story, page 32)
The public is invited to a cornerstone ceremony at 11 a.m. Saturday on the new seven-story addition at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

The stone, which is to be placed temporarily above the new ambulance entrance, is to be blessed by Rev. Engelbert Bienes, of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Madison.

Among the items to be placed in the cornerstone is an essay written by a hospital employee, entitled "What St. Elizabeth Hospital will look like in 100 years."

The guest speaker on the program will be John Rendleman, SIU-SW chancellor and member of the hospital's governing board; and other participants will be Chris Kallioff, president of the Lay Advisory Board, who will be master of ceremonies; Sister Mary Thomas, hospital administrator, who will welcome guests and visitors; Lyle F. Guley, president of Granite City Steel Co. and vice-president of the hospital's governing board; and Rev. Paul Surbey, pastor of St. John United Church of Christ.

Other items to be placed in the copper box inside the cornerstone are sketches listing all contributors to the hospital's current $11,000,000 expansion modernization project, staffs, volunteers and members of hospital boards.

State legislators and local county officials have been invited to participate in the ceremony.

United Fund Drive at 46%; Pledges Now Total $187,002

The Tri-Cities Area United Fund Campaign is nearing the halfway mark with contributions and pledges totaling $187,002 at the second reporting luncheon yesterday in the YMCA.

The total is 46.2% of this year's goal of $405,000. Leo Konzen, campaign chairman, opened the meeting with the announcement that 39 new pledges have totaled $539.

In the Commercial Division alone, 28 new accounts increased the division's percentage to 10.9%, an increase of 8% over the first meeting report.

Under the leadership of Donald Adams and William Harris, the Commercial Division expects to triple new pledges reported this week at $38,500, upped this year by $10,000.

Also showing a marked increase over the first report was the leadership of Donald Treder.

Milinski introduced United Leaders, Alex Malczynski, Morris Lacy, Carl Hagemeister and John Vaughn, from the American Steel Foundries, who pledged $11,500 in pledges from the employees of the plant.

He added that 96% of the plant employees are engaged in a continuous giving program and the others will be contacted to contribute to the United Fund campaign.

Pledges and percentages for other divisions yesterday were: Commercial Division, $4100 or 10.9%; Professional Division, $8500 or 62.8%; Public Services, $3200 or 26.2%; Residential, $9400 or 94.1%; and Madison, $2822 or 33.2%. No report was received from Venice.

The next reporting will come from the Division chairmen, and a follow-up meeting for leaders, workers, and the public is scheduled for Wednesday, Oct. 29.

Immediate Funds To Acquire Lake As Illinois Park

Karandjeff Sees Park Becoming Largest in State

Henry D. Karandjeff, who has headed the state Horseshoe Lake park commission since its inception, commented on last night's approval of the project that "this is the realization of a dream of many, many years."

"We naturally are overjoyed that the governor decided to go along with the beginning of a program that we hope will become the largest park in the state, eventually combining the Horseshoe Lake park with Calumet-Sands Park, which is a major attraction in itself."

"Such a park would not only attract and serve the many hundreds of thousands of persons in the vicinity, but people from the entire nation."

"The Department of Conservation has come to the conclusion that such parks should be located near the centers of population instead of at distant points."

"Horseshoe Lake is the largest natural lake in the state of Illinois and our efforts to develop it go back more than 40 years, when an attempt to develop the lake as a county park failed because a bond issue was rejected."

"I want to express my sincere gratitude to all of the commission members, the representatives, state officials and the people who have backed the program and done so much to realize this final accomplishment. Without their aid, the realization of the dream would have been impossible."

GC Couple Hurt in Motorcycle Accident
Mrs. Linda Prater of Granite City was recovering at Grady Hospital in Urbana, Ill., yesterday from surgery resulting from accident injuries suffered last week when she and her husband, William Prater, also of Granite City, were riding collided with an auto. The couple was enroute to classes at the University of Illinois when the mishap occurred. Prater was treated for injuries, x-rays and a cast.

Mrs. Prater is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bing Lee of 3004 Indiana street, and Prater is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Prater, 4813 Warnock street.

Mrs. Prater suffered a compound fracture of the left arm. Both are 1966 graduates of Granite City high school.

$2 Million Horseshoe Lake Bills Signed by Governor Last Night

Describing it as "a memorable occasion for the half-million citizens of the area," Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie last night signed House Bills 768 and 767 providing $2 million for acquisition of Horseshoe Lake as a state park and adding it to the 51 parks administered by the Illinois Department of Conservation.

The governor told the Press-Record there will be "immediate release" of the funds. The appropriation calls for the Conservation Department to acquire about 1700 acres of the lake and surrounding land in Madison and St. Clair counties.

A gathering of about 75 who witnessed the signing in Belleville included Henry D. Karandjeff, Granite City banker and longtime chairman of the park commission, which recommended development of the park, conservation area and wildlife refuge.

"This is the second historic step in a week in our effort to bring parks to the people," Gov. Ogilvie said. Last week he had signed legislation creating a state park on the 92-acre grounds of a former golf club in Chicago, the "first major state park in Illinois created in an urban area."

Site in Population Center
"Discussing the new Horseshoe Lake park, the governor said, 'By providing recreational opportunities in our densely populated metropolitan areas, we are attempting to preserve our remaining open lands for future generations of city people.'"

"This problem is especially acute in an industrial state like Illinois, where there is a heavy demand for nearly all the land in or near our cities for commercial or residential development."

"I am especially pleased because this action today represents the fulfillment of a pledge I made to the people of this state during my campaign for governor in 1968."

Smith, Harris, Others Praised
"It also is a tribute to the chief sponsor of these bills, former Illinois House Speaker and now U.S. Senator Ralph T. Smith, and the civic leaders who have shown such persistence made this event possible."

"One of the pens used in signing the lake park bills was given to Karandjeff to be presented to former State Rep. Lloyd C. Harris of Granite City, another active backer of the proposal."

It was indicated last night that the Conservation Department will take active and immediate interest in acquiring and developing Horseshoe Lake. An advisory body to aid the department in its planning may be appointed, composed of citizens of this region.

Study Federal Funds
Conservation officials have reported that federal funds may be sought to accelerate development of Horseshoe Lake park.

Con-Con Ballot Line-Up Set for Nov. 18

The order in which names of candidates for election as Illinois Constitutional Convention delegates from the 53rd Senatorial district will appear on the ballot has been certified to the county clerk's office at Edwardsville, County Clerk Eulalia Hotz announced Tuesday.

Voters of the 53rd Senatorial district, which comprises the four townships of the Quad-City area and six other Madison county townships, will elect two delegates to the constitutional convention in a special election Nov. 18. Similar elections will be held in the 37 other senatorial districts of the state.

Miss Hotz said the four candidates nominated in the Sept. 23 primary election and the order in which they will appear on the ballot district ballot are: Wendell Durr, Edwardsville attorney; Mrs. Doreen Young, Alton; Ray Johnson, Troy accountant; and Lucile B. Ringering of Wood River, operator of a manufacturing firm.

To Convene Dec. 8
The two delegates elected from each of the 58 Illinois Senatorial districts will make up a total of 116 delegates to the convention which is to convene in Springfield on Dec. 8. The convention will be called to order by each delegate but he will preside only until a temporary president is elected by a plurality of votes cast.

The first task of the delegates then will be to elect officers, adopt rules and organize to conduct the work of the convention. These proceedings are expected to go a long way in determining the success or failure of the Con-Con since the manner in which the leadership is structured will determine whether Democratic or Republican, liberal or conservative will be of major importance.

The convention is expected to complete its work in eight months, and while the delegates are to convene in Springfield, there is no assurance that all of the convention work will be done there. Since the Legislature will convene in Springfield in April it is likely the constitutional convention will move elsewhere.

After the convention completes its work, the delegates are subject to approval by a state-wide referendum and must be presented to the people within two to eight months after the convention adjourns.

Each delegate will receive $623 per month for up to eight months, plus $75 for each day of the session he serves up to 100 days. That is a total of $12,500. Delegates also will receive 15 cents a mile for traveling and $120 for postage, as well as $35 a day for room and incidental expenses. The president will receive $1800 a month for up to nine months and the vice-president $1200 a month for up to nine months.

Revenue and taxation are among major subjects certain to come in for top attention by the convention, and because taxation is involved in virtually every other issue expected to arise, a fair and workable revenue article is considered essential to eventual approval by the electorate of the convention's endeavors.

Wide Problem Range
The delegates are expected to attack a wide range of problems involving the growth and simultaneous decay of the cities and the concurrent suburban spread. Some of these issues involving the question of giving municipalities more power to rule themselves, eliminate the overlapping local governments and establishment of methods for cooperation among governing

County Board Tangles With Tax Use Legality

The Madison county board of supervisors tangled with legal aspects of two financial questions—use of tuberculosis sanatorium funds and collections of delinquent real estate taxes—earlier.

At a meeting Wednesday in the courthouse at Edwardsville, Alton Supervisor George Roberts, in a letter to other members of the county board, charged that use of a $350,000 TB fund surplus to convert the sanatorium into a county nursing home was illegal as the state's attorney's office refused to obtain an opinion on spending of the money from the state attorney general.

The letter included some personal asides to Marshall "Zeke" Smith, assistant state attorney and advisor to the county board, in his dealings with the new TB board of trustees.

Smith, under attack by Roberts before on the floor of the county board, insisted that use of the funds, now under way, is legal, and that the question had been researched by former state's attorney Dick Mudge who had been retained by the former TB trustees to obtain an opinion. Mudge concurred with Smith.

State Too Busy
He said the office of the attorney general, faced with questions of legality of hundreds of pieces of new state legislation, does not have the time to handle the local question, prefers localities to handle their own problems and in any event would ask him (Smith) to write the opinion for the state office.

Smith maintained that he had not been acquainted with the three new TB trustees before their appointment, and "no deal was made."

Earlier in the meeting it was reported at architectural plans for conversion of the sanatorium into a nursing home have been approved by the state, and plans are being made to advertise for construction bids in December.

A quarterly report by Lawrence Lockhart of Granite City, chairman of the sanatorium board, showed that $13,900 has been saved in operating expenses and that further expenses will be cut.

Smith told the board that expenses of the trustees will be higher because the trustees now are more active than the previous trustees, but that operations will cost less.

It was noted that with a surplus of more than $1 million, TB tax levies are too high and are subject to railroad tax objection cases.

Lower Tax Levy
Smith said that with the use of $350,000 for the nursing home, earmarking other funds for a new TB clinic, the surplus will not be too high, and that the tax levy this year would be $300,000 or less.

The final test will be in tax court in January or February when the railroad objection cases will be heard, and Smith said he believed he had found "a legal gimmick" to beat the railroads on the matter. It is another reason not to take the attorney general, he added.

Edward Voornard of Alton charged Smith with encroaching on the legislative powers of the county board.

Smith retorted, "This was all ready approved by the board. I didn't engineer this, really. I face Smith as he was admitted to a hospital several days earlier.

Delinquent Taxes
Roger Elble of Wood River township called for discontinuance of a contract with Paul Meyer of Clair Investments to collect delinquent real estate taxes, as state statutes do not provide for employment of an outside agent.

He maintained that the law places the responsibility on the county treasurer and cited court opinions holding such practice to be illegal.

Smith admitted some questions to the legality but maintained that it was the best practical method to collect the delinquent taxes, which otherwise would never be collected.

Gilbert Killinger of Collinsville township chairman of the tax and delinquent tax committee, added that close to $300,000 in back taxes has been collected through the outside agency since an agreement was entered about two years ago, and that most of the money goes to school districts which have not complained.

Paul Meyer, operator of the tax agency, receives only the penalties on the back taxes for his work, with the rest going to the taxing bodies, Killinger added.

Options Sought By County for Building Sites

The new buildings committee of the Madison county board of supervisors was authorized to negotiate options for purchase of three sites in downtown Edwardsville and for other property deemed expedient in development of a new county jail and other county buildings. The action was taken at a meeting of the county board Wednesday.

The county has been offered the Woodworth store building and an old pool hall as the location of a new county jail with the property to cost $100,000. Appraisals were $30,000 to $33,000 lower.

The committee, headed by Roy Habbe of Hamel, was authorized to obtain the cost of six-month options on the three buildings and any others considered.

It was reported to be made at the November meeting of the full board.

Other Business
In other business the board: Authorized a call for bids for two sliding doors to divide the living room of the new juvenile detention home to provide adequate waiting room provisions for the juvenile court there.

In discussion of a recent question of the legality of the court at the home, Marshall Smith, assistant state attorney, said that it was legal, but that in his opinion it was not advisable, pending the number of jury cases on juvenile matters in the future. Smith said the juvenile court may be forced to return to the courthouse and with a large number of juries, additional cost to the county "will be tremendous."

No one desires to treat a juvenile like an adult criminal, Smith said, and added that Juvenile Judge William Beatty was sincere in providing juveniles with the same rights as adults.

Referred until the next meeting amendments to the landfill ordinance to make it more effective.

Approved an additional budget appropriation of $21,000 for clerical salaries in the office of the clerk of the circuit court.

Added and water pollution problems to the jurisdiction of the sanitation department, with three persons, current sanitation officer, named sanitation air and water pollution officer. Increased mileage for board members from 10 to 15 cents per mile while traveling on county business as provided by new state legislation.

Reappointed Harry Johnson of Madison and Edwin Reiske of Granite City to new four-member Madison County Mental Health Board.

Heard a report that the governor's committee on urban affairs will hold a public hearing on urban matters to be considered by the constitution convention from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Oct. 23.

If the convention results are turned down by the voters in the referendum, the experts say it will be a long time before enough momentum can be gained for another attempt. Meanwhile, the state will continue operating under an antiquated constitution.

Fiery Nameoki Twp. Sessions Continue

Sharp rejoinders continued to highlight discussions at the Nameoki township board of auditors meeting Monday evening, as previously raised issues were re-stated and new dissenting viewpoints aired.

About 25 persons attending the board's semi-monthly meeting, which lasted 45 minutes.

Starting with an objection to official minutes recorded at the Sept. 22 session, voiced by Mrs. Dorothy Neminger, former secretary to the town clerk who was replaced in that post Oct. 1, verbal clashes occurred at intervals between Nameoki Supervisor Harry Briggs and members of the town board, including Louis Whitsell, town clerk.

Authority to hire a bookkeeper for the township road and bridge fund, absence of a union label on new printed forms used by the Town Board of Health and availability of records to board members during office hours were among the points disputed.

Veto by Briggs
A suggestion by Auditor Douglas Tector that the township institute a practice advocated in a recent Press-Record editorial, which would require additional signatures on future township checks, was quickly vetoed by Briggs.

The supervisor's objection to a joint signature procedure was upheld by Township Atty. William Schooley, who stated that according to statute it is the prerogative of the supervisor to handle all township funds. He pointed out that in townships where joint signatures are used, the policy is followed at the specific supervisor's discretion.

Commenting that it is difficult to get to the township office during regular operating hours because of his employment, Whitsell said, "It is impossible for me to keep my records accurately unless I have access to all the books and can see if checks are posted correctly."

Available Hours
Briggs replied that records were available to the town clerk and all auditors from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday.

When additional comments greeted this reply, the supervisor said, "Are you suggesting that I meet you here on Saturdays? Have you forgotten that you people are suing me for attending extra meetings. I am not going to be here on Saturdays for that purpose."

To Auditor Kenneth Gieson's remark, "We have the right to audit the checkbook," Briggs answered, "I'll do the job of handling the checkbook and you can audit it anytime from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday."

The suit against Briggs, referred to by the township official, involves a proceeding to seek judgment for an assent undetermined refund of township funds on grounds that Briggs, as supervisor, collected per diem fees for attending town meetings while also collecting an annual salary.

Check Controversy
Mrs. Dorothy Neminger, who still retains the job of office secretary-bookkeeper at the Nameoki township hall, although no longer a part-time position as secretary to Town Clerk Whitsell, objected to a report from the Sept. 22 meeting which referred to late posting of a $2254 check.

The controversy over the check, authorized by Briggs as payment to a St. Louis firm for mosquito spray chemical and for the Sept. 22 meeting which referred to late posting of the check until after it had cleared the bank.

At Monday's session, Mrs. Neminger repeated her denial that the check was posted any differently than other checks and when the accusation was again re-stated by Whitsell, she retorted, "In that case, it is my word against yours."

The township secretary also figured indirectly in another controversy between Whitsell and Township Highway Commissioner Charles Hanks, after the town clerk asserted that Hanks refused to sign a request enabling Whitsell to hire a part-time secretary for the road and bridge fund.

Hanks stated, "I did not refuse to sign. I said I wanted to wait until we got this matter straightened out."

There seems to be a doubt in Charlie's mind that I can hire a girl as my secretary for road and bridge," Whitsell said, adding that he would like a legal opinion.

Opinion Pending
Schooley noted, "As an off-hand opinion I would say that you (Whitsell) have the right, since you are in charge of records." The attorney pointed out, however, that Hanks is solely responsible for all funds and operations connected with the highway department, including the road and bridge fund, and advised Whitsell that he will give a precise answer after a conference with Nick Vassileff, former township attorney and current attorney for the Nameoki township highway department.

Mrs. Neminger, who has been employed in the township office the past eight years, also holds the part-time job as road and bridge secretary.

Briggs also requested that his name be removed from the standard printed forms, used by the town board of health. The forms, recently ordered and received from a Waukegan printing firm, do not have a union label, Briggs said.

Whitsell said the shipment will be returned to the company for re-stamping with a union trademark, and asserted that the firm is a union shop.

Hanks announced that G. H. Sternberg & Co. will begin work next week on installation of a storm-water sewer line from Breckenridge lane and Division street to Long Lake. The board approved a $3785 contract with the construction firm last month.

It was reported by Whitsell that Hanks has formally accepted into the township highway maintenance program the third addition to Maryville Heights, an area encompassing Bern and Vine avenues. The fourth addition still has not been accepted by Hanks, who said the delay is due to requirements not yet being met by the subdividers.

A letter to a resident of Miracle avenue, directing the property owner to clean up debris and cut weeds or face court action in 30 days, was reported.

As most Nameoki town board members plan to attend the annual state convention of township officials Oct. 25-28 in Peoria, the next meeting of the town board was postponed from Monday, Oct. 27, to Friday Oct. 31.

Innocent Pleadings

To Four Charges

Pleadings of not guilty to four charges were entered Tuesday in magistrate's court here by James Leroy English, 23, who was taken into custody by Granite City police Sunday night in a service station at 20th and Adams streets.

English was transferred to the county jail Tuesday afternoon. His bond was set at $34, 900 property or $1700 cash. He pleaded innocent to charges of burglary, unlawful use of a weapon, a .32 caliber pistol, unlawful possession of firearms and no firearm owner's identification card.

3 Motorists Ticketed

Arrest tickets were issued to three motorists Tuesday night by Granite City police. Ralph P. Waterman, 1010 State street, Madison, was charged with failure to yield right-of-way at 20th street and Grand avenue and for failure to have a valid registration. Charged with disobeying traffic signals were Paul LeGrand, 2006 Cottage avenue, at Niedringhaus and Madison avenues, and Leo Roman, 3213 College avenue, at 20th street and Madison avenues.

'Good Neighbor' Volunteers to Meet

Persons interested in volunteering their services to a "Good Neighbor" organization, currently being formed in the Nameoki area, are invited to attend the group's second meeting at 8 p.m. today in St. Elizabeth school cafeteria.

Jerome Distler, who is temporary chairman, stressed that membership is undenominational and not limited only to church members. "When organized, our group hopes to serve an area roughly the size of St. Elizabeth Parish, with families of all faiths involved," he pointed out.

Purpose of the group is to conceive, plan and implement a program of assistance to families residing in the area which may need help in the event of a fire in their home or a similar disaster.

Recent flooding in parts of the parish area, when many families turned to their neighbors for aid was among the reasons given for forming such a group.

About 85 persons have listed their names, indicating their willingness to work in the program, Distler said.

Mrs. Clara Gill, 74, Expires at Home

Mrs. Clara M. Gill, 74, of Lee Wright Homes, Venice, was pronounced dead of natural causes at home at 2:20 a.m. Wednesday by Edward Werner, deputy coroner.

Born in Fulton, Ky., Mrs. Gill was a resident of Venice for 10 years. She was a member of the Bethel AME Church. Survivors include one daughter, Miss Robbie Agnes Gill of Venice; a sister, Mrs. Birtie Gardner of Madison, and a nephew, James Gardner, a teacher at the Madison high school.

Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

Title I Program Funds Obtained For New Year

The Granite City school board was advised Monday night of formal state approval and federal funding of its $123,140 Title I program for 1968-70. Services will be the same as last year—remedial reading, pre-school classes, nursing and counseling services at Emerson, Logan, Washington and Webster schools.

The board set the pay of Supt. Bob J. Davis at $25,000 for this year. All other administrators' pay is based on various percentages above the teacher pay level, with the teacher schedule increased markedly for 1968-70, principals and administrators have received substantial raises.

Melvin Bunting of the high school faculty was assigned the additional duty of Central Junior high school seventh grade basketball coach. The board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Linda Wiseman, a Maryville grade school teacher who has been on leave of absence; her husband has been transferred from this area.

Adroit Chemical Co. was authorized to provide termite treatment at Wilson grade school for $1522 initially and $52 annually, and Graham's Bookstore will provide 100 magazine subscriptions for 15 schools at a total of $1773.

The board decided to purchase a mimeograph machine from A. B. Dick for $895 and to have the Hester-Bradley Co. repair the Frohardt grade school heating system vacuum pump for $275.

MORE ABOUT

cal Center is a reality and is expanding yearly.

"Our schools have not been disrupted by teacher strike or other disruption of the school system in the past. The school system has been plagued many schools in the area and nation. All of these are signs of genuine progress and reflect the concern and interest which all citizens have in the school system.

"This is a year of challenge. We must move ahead in education as we have in the past. Vote 'yes' for continued quality in your schools and community," Davinroy said.

If approved, a higher rate is expected to be certified to the Madison county clerk for collection of taxes next spring. The levy adopted in September called for utilization of the maximum rate then in effect.

Spending Exceeds Income

In all probability, it will be necessary to use the full 40 cents next year, school officials said last week. Expenditures now exceed all potential income, it was noted, and a deficit is growing each year. Of the 40 cents, 17 cents would be applied to the educational program, 15 cents would be allocated for salary increases in 1970-71, seven cents for salary increases in 1971-72 and one cent for supplies and equipment.

Officials note that many homes in the Venice district are assessed at $4000 or lower, at an average of 40% to 45% of value.

"On such a home, a 40% tax rate increase would cost the taxpayer $16 per year, but the price of one pack of cigarettes per week," Supt. John O. Pier has commented. "Other examples cited are a home with assessed valuation of $5000, an additional $20 per year $4000 assessment, and $2000 assessed home, $8 per year."

Salary Uplifted Cited

If the rate increase fails to gain voter approval, the district will be faced with the possible loss of teachers and inability to recruit new faculty members, Davinroy said.

He added, "In the past, Venice has always tried to maintain salaries that would enable the schools to attract and maintain the best teachers."

"Should the tax increase fail and we are unable to grant salary increases to our teachers, the difference in salary between the Venice district and neighboring school districts in the area would range from $1000 to $2000 per teacher per school year. Quite obviously, we cannot retain a competent staff if salaries are not competitive with area districts."

Davinroy said programs now in operation, such as athletics, music, band, teacher aides, extracurricular activities and bus transportation might have to be curtailed if a present $130,000 deficit continues to increase.

$100,000 Tax Warrants

He said the district was forced to borrow $100,000 in tax anticipation warrants to complete the 1968-69 school year.

"We will need to borrow up to $200,000 to complete this year's tax referendum falls."

"Should this financial burden continue to mount each year, we will soon be in a position where the schools will not be able to operate due to insufficient funds."

The last tax increase approved by Venice voters, in 1964 by a margin of one vote, raised the education rate maximum by 40 cents. The district utilized the increased rate on a gradual basis over a three-year period.

Urges St. Patrick's

Day Be Set March 16

The proverbial "luck of the Irish" still holds.

With a new state law fixing a primary election date that would fall next year on March 17, St. Patrick's Day—the more dramatic celebration of the event—were faced with the prospect of a drastic departure from the traditional manner of celebration.

All taverns are required to close on election days.

But a solution to the problem has been advanced by State Auditor Michael J. Howlett who has asked the state legislature to declare Monday, March 16, a state holiday to honor St. Patrick.

"Since the primary will be a distraction from the festivities to which the Irish, and those who are Irish or have Irish blood, are accustomed, I suggest Monday, March 16, be designated as St. Patrick's Day," Howlett wrote to legislative leaders, urging further that March 16 be declared a state holiday.

Economy Urged

Taxpayer Study Group Endorses Venice School Tax Rate Hike

The Tri-Cities Taxpayers Public Expenditures Group announced today that following a review of the current financial condition of Venice County, the unit urged to support the referendum as a means of pulling the district out of debt.

The taxpayers' group also urged that the unit's administration and board undertake a complete analysis of all unit school operations to improve efficiency and economy.

Representing the Taxpayers Group, William F. Hoelscher, secretary of the newly formed organization and general manager-secretary of the Manufacturers' Association of the Tri-Cities, stated that the solution to the Venice school deficit financial condition required not only an educational program, but also extensive changes in school operations to reduce per capita pupil operating costs.

He said the local, state and national unit district averages, Hoelscher's statement follows:

Budget and Revenue

"Venice School District Unit 3 has adopted for the 1969-70 school year a budget appropriation which totals $1,579,993, of which $457,499 is the cost of operating the Venice Lincoln Technical Center which is fully reimbursed by the state.

"Gross Revenue during the year has been projected at only $1,372,032 in all funds, thus creating an anticipated deficit of $207,961. Because substantial deficits were incurred in the previous school year, the deficit for 1969-70 is budgeted in the 1969-70 year, the real deficit condition of the Venice school district could be as high as one-half million dollars by the end of this school year."

The proverbial "luck of the Irish" still holds.

"During the 1968-69 school year the district borrowed $30,000 from the Working Cash Fund and sold $100,000 of anticipation warrants for the educational fund. Under Illinois state law the first tax receipts received by the unit in 1969-70 must be used to retire these items.

"The 1969-70 budget at the same time provides for another $80,000 loan from the Working Cash fund and the sale of anticipation warrants during the year totaling $251,000.

Year's Prospects

"If the district incurs expenditures as currently budgeted, it will end the school year owing $311,094 out of the educational fund and $145,451 out of the building fund for a total 1969-70 year-end deficit of $456,545.

"The Tri-Cities Taxpayers Public Expenditures Group's public support of the 40-cent educational fund referendum is based on the obvious need of the district to attempt to remove itself from operating in a deficit situation.

"Approval of the rate referendum, however, will not solve the district's deficit situation unless stringent operational and economy measures are adopted.

"Although Unit 3 has a 1968 total assessed valuation of $55,528,185, the highest per pupil assessed valuation of unit school districts in the state of Illinois, an immediate tax levy extension of the entire 40-cent educational rate increase asked of the voters at Saturday's referendum would produce only $140,000 annually.

"Because of this fact it is clear that unless substantial efficiencies and economies are adopted immediately, the deficit will continue in debt regardless of the outcome of Saturday's referendum.

Details of Study

"To determine why Unit 3 is in debt, we need only to examine the unit's 'Budgets, Tax Rates and Assessed Valuation Totals' for the last five school years from 1963-64 to 1969-70. During this period, total 'Budgets' for the district have increased 107.6%, while 'Tax Rates' were raised only 22.4%, and total 'Assessed Valuation' for the district actually declined.

"Although the specifics of these 'Budgets, Tax Rates and Assessed Valuations' may be noted from the following table, it is clear that the district cannot continue to spend more than the available tax revenue without continuing in debt.

"The unit's inability to make expenditures and tax revenues balance can best be understood by examining the unit's 'Budgets' and 'Tax Revenues' in terms of the number of dollars spent annually to educate each pupil in the school system. While it is true that the Venice school tax rate per $100 of assessed valuation has been the lowest of all unit districts in Madison county for the last several years, it is equally true that the Venice district spends roughly twice as many tax dollars per pupil enrolled as the surrounding districts, the average in the state of Illinois or the nation. Unit 3 began the 1969-70 school year with a line over 700 pupils and a budget, excluding the Lincoln Technical Center, of $1,142,494 or roughly $1625 budget dollars per pupil.

Comparison Figures

"As a comparison, Granite City Unit 9 began the same year with 14,900 pupils and an annual budget of just over 14 million dollars, not counting new school construction items, or roughly $960 budget dollars per pupil. Additional statistics obtained from the office of the State Superintendent of Public Education indicate that the annual 'Operating Charge' (a figure which excludes construction, capital expenditures, adult education, etc.) for the year 1969-70 will total $12.50 for Unit 3, $664 in Granite City Unit 9 and $530 in Madison Unit 12.

"While state and national 'Operating Charge' figures are not directly comparable because they include non-unit districts such as individual elementary, secondary and high school districts, during 1968-69 such charges were $580 per pupil nationally, $740 per pupil in the state of Illinois.

Although Venice Unit 3 has been subject to the same inflationary trend affecting the entire country and teacher collective bargaining demands the equal to those experienced by other units, the probable cause for the unit's doubling of the budget dollars per pupil enrolled is due to the way the unit is staffed and its relatively small overall size.

"In 1969-70, the unit reported a pupil enrollment of just over 700 and a faculty of 51. This is an average of 14 pupils per faculty member in Unit 3 compared to an average of 20 pupils per faculty member in other local school units and as high as 35 pupils per faculty member in the state and national levels.

"Because Unit 3 is an unusually small unit district which must provide services for grades from 12 to 12 for a total enrollment of only 700 pupils, class size pupil-faculty ratios are undoubtedly difficult to manage at reasonable levels.

Future Possibilities

"However, if continuing deficits are to be avoided, a complete review of possible operational efficiencies and economies or enlarging the unit to a more normal size is needed.

"Many persons mistakenly believe that the Venice Unit is a 'high price per pupil assessed valuation level. Illinois school aid provides both a flat grant and an 'equalization grant' to local unit districts. Venice receives the 'flat grant' of about $36,000 dollars annually, but because of the unit's high per pupil assessed valuation, the 'equalization grant' which normally would total more than $350,000 annually is nullified by inability to receive the same state aid grants enjoyed by other local and state unit districts. Since it is not likely that the state aid formula will be amended in the near future in such manner as to give the unit substantial financial relief, Unit 3 administration and board must turn to increased internal efficiency and economy.

"In fully supporting the Saturday 40-cent educational fund referendum and urging an operational review by Unit 3 administration and board, the Tri-Cities Taxpayers Public Expenditures Group pledges its assistance in any way requested which will continue the high standards of education provided by the Venice school district and an ultimate solution to the unit's deficit financial situation."

Two in Shell Theft Case Given Probation

Two defendants who had pleaded guilty last month to a charge in connection with theft of more than 400 gallons of gasoline from the Shell Oil refinery were granted three years probation Tuesday by Associate Circuit Judge Michael Kinney.

They are Herman D. Wilson, 34, of Wood River, and James L. Riley, 37, of Wood River, who faced conspiracy charges.

Probation was recommended by the Madison county probation office which investigated the case. The two men could be rehabilitated.

The court also received letters requesting probation for the two current employers as a pastors of churches.

The two men were arrested in June 1968 as Shell security and administrative personnel watched an unauthorized driver fill his truck's tank at the loading dock.

Wilson and Riley had shut off the gasoline entering the tank. Two truck drivers and a cut-rate service station operator also were involved in the case but were not prosecuted.

Olivia Studying Tax Outlook, Road Freeze

Taxation and the Madison-St. Clair counties highway freeze were discussed by Governor Richard B. Ogilvie in a press conference with area newsmen last night in Belleville. His views:

"We should not be concerned at this time over whether the first auto and household furnishings, becomes a valid reduction, the state will have to resort to supplementary local governments. After that, we can talk about whether state taxes can be reduced."

The governor said "we've been very busy" trying in several ways to restore federal highway funds to this region. While he could not divulge details, he indicated the federal freeze was receiving full attention and effort.

On another topic, noting that he has appointed a commission to study the feasibility of state tax aid to parochial schools, he said it is possible that new legislation will be sought.

Costs, Special Education Chief GC School Problems

The most serious problems of the Granite City school district center on special education and on cost and enrollment increases, in the opinion of school officials.

An annual report and application for recognition, prepared by the administrative staff and approved by the board Monday night, lists the chief problems as:

1. Providing facilities for special education.
 2. Recruiting qualified personnel for special education.
 3. Rapid growth of the school district.
 4. Increased operational costs.
- The lengthy report cites as recent improvements in the Granite City district:
- Cooperative Program
1. Organization of a special education cooperation district (along with the Madison and Venice school systems).
 2. Passage of a $4,750,000 bond issue to provide two elementary buildings, one junior high school, a four-classroom addition to the high school complex, and additional high school physical education facilities.
 3. Passage of a 40-cent tax rate referendum.
 4. Establishment of the position of pupil personnel services director.

5. Establishment of a state-supported demonstration center for gifted students.

$500 Cost Per Pupil

Financial facts listed for 1968 indicate a per capita cost of $599.17 in the district and $15,000 per capita wealth, with an education tax rate of $2.2884, building tax rate of $4.86 cents, total school tax rate of $3.129 and assessed valuation of $219,264,305.

The class organization is shown as K-5-3-3, representing kindergarten, the first six grades, three years of junior high school and three years of high school.

Facilities reported are 15 elementary schools, four junior high schools, a senior high school, an administrative office and a warehouse.

Enrollment is shown as 14,817 as of the sixth day of this school term and since has topped the 14,900 level.

The figures do not include 68 pre-school children enrolled in federally-financed instruction here.

A breakdown of the 14,817 enrollment tally is as follows: High school—3084; handicapped 21, tenth graders 1283, eleventh 1007 and twelfth, 773. Junior high schools—3557 students; handicapped 26, seventh graders 1126, eighth 1178 and ninth, 1227.

Elementary

Handicapped 75, kindergarten 1156, first graders 1230, second 1189, third 1196, fourth 1081, fifth 1146 and sixth graders, 1108.

"Yes" answers are given to the following questions:

Balance in Use of Time

Is a full-time kindergarten opened? Is a reasonable and desirable balance maintained in the time allotments of the different areas of the elementary school curriculum?

Are good and varied comprehensive programs—academic, technical and vocational—available for all youths of high school age? Does the district provide special programs for the gifted and for the handicapped?

Are services provided in audio-visual, instructional television, guidance, library, pupil transportation, health and school lunch? Does the district participate in and administer cooperative educational programs with other districts?

A listing of personnel shows 36 administrators, eight supervisors, 353 elementary teachers, 171 junior high teachers and 140 high school teachers.

210 Have Master Degrees

All professional staff members hold Illinois certificates valid for their assigned positions. Six have no college degrees, 492 have bachelor degrees and 210 have master degrees.

Supt. B. J. Davis is listed as having an all-grade supervisory certificate with three years in his present position and 12 years of administrative experience.

Affirmative answers also are submitted on these seven questions:

1. Does the board operate according to statutory requirements and the rules and regulations of the office of the superintendent of public instruction?

Utilize Written Policies

2. Has the board adopted written policies?
3. Does the board operate its policies, rules and regulations?

Does the board hold the superintendent of schools responsible for the administration and supervision of the educational program?

5. Does the board carry general liability insurance?
6. Are the official minutes of the board on file in the office of the chief administrator?

Deans College Enrollment Grows At Local Campus

Enrollment in the Deans College, an experimental program for outstanding students which began 22 months ago at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern, has grown from a small handful of students to 196, including 38 entering freshmen. Seven of the freshmen are from Granite City.

They are Christopher Hamilton, Linda Hatcher, Thomas Hildebrand, Kathleen Moran, Michael Tello, Robert Thurau and Raelene Wenzel.

Students selected for the Deans College must complete 192 quarter hours for a bachelor degree but may waive general studies requirements. They also are allowed to take advanced courses whenever qualified, providing a maximum of flexibility.

A senior faculty member is assigned to advise each Deans College student. The student and the adviser develop the course schedule based on individual needs. A student may take up to four hours of honors work each quarter under the adviser's direction.

Students admitted to the Deans College must have a 4.5 grade point average in high school. They are nominated by members of the faculty and must maintain a four-point average to remain in the program.

Eric Sturley, coordinator of the college, says most of the students take more courses in their major field than the average student.

Enrollment by divisions includes business, eight; education, 18; fine arts, 35; humanities, 34; science and technology, 19; and social science, 24. The 58 freshmen are unclassified.

Six Churchill Oak Trees to be Planted at SIU

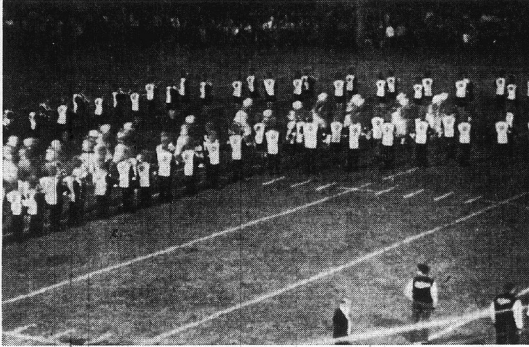

Six oak trees from the birthplace of Sir Winston Churchill will be ceremonially planted at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale Oct. 24 as a gesture to strengthen the ties between the U.S. and Great Britain.

The trees, a gift to SIU from the Kent branch of England's Men of Trees Society, were to have been planted in ceremony last year. But the U.S. Department of Agriculture said they would have to be observed in isolation before being introduced to the campus.

They've been under scrutiny in a section of the SIU tree nursery and have been cleared for release.

Called the Blenheim Oaks, the trees are from stock at Blenheim Palace, Oxfordshire, England, birthplace of Sir Winston Churchill, were presented to Southern Illinois University by the Men of Trees Society (Kent Branch), whose chairman, Mr. B. P. Tompsett, planted them on Oct. 24, 1969.

Tompsett will present a plaque reading: "These trees, raised from the great oaks at Blenheim Palace, Oxfordshire, England, birthplace of Sir Winston Churchill, were presented to Southern Illinois University by the Men of Trees Society (Kent Branch), whose chairman, Mr. B. P. Tompsett, planted them on Oct. 24, 1969, to strengthen the ties between our two countries."

"VICTORY LINE" FORMATION by the Granite City high school band, playing the school fight song, as the Warriors ran onto the field preceding the Granite-Wood River Homecoming football game which proved to be a victory for the home team with a score of 34-8.

Ben Tompsett, chairman of the Kent branch, will be present for the planting, scheduled to be on the east lawn of the SIU Communications Building.

Local Students Appear in SIU-SW Campus Movie

Janice Hinckley, Louis G. Smith, Martin Berkbigler and Kay Connell, all of Granite City and students at SIU-SW campus, will be among the students featured in a 16mm color film released this week by the university.

Titled "Insights," the 13-minute sound film includes portions of a performance by the SIU-SW Concert Choral and a speech by Illinois Sen. Charles Percy, in addition to comments by the students.

Included in the film are classroom scenes, student activities, the library, athletic and general campus views. Designed to serve multiple purposes, the film will be used as an informational aid to high school students and is available for showing to clubs, groups and organizations at no cost.

The University's Information and Instructional Projects Committee spearheaded the idea for the film, which was produced by SIU's News Services office at the Southwestern campus, headed by A. R. Howard.

Roca Young Men's Club Celebrates Anniversary

The Roca Young Men's Club held a "parent" night at the Moose Lodge this week to celebrate the 19th year of the club under the leadership of founder Earl Parsons.

Mark Rigby presented the Roca pledge to President Tim Moore, who in turn opened the meeting and introduced the members present.

Ralph Thompson, vice-president, gave the theme for the coming year as "Score" which will consist of service to home, cooperation, obligation to school, and respect for others.

President Moore outlined the program for the parents, and Thompson told the group the project is now under way with the first phase in working with the school entrance of Grand avenue.

Seebold was crowned Homecoming Queen. She was escorted by Mike Loftus, and other Roca members who served as escorts in the ceremony were Rick Cardwell, Frank Mehelic and Dave Evans.

The club held a hayride last week in Edwardsville and plans to attend a hockey game later this month. Other activities planned include a bowling tournament and a car wax on Oct. 23 on the circle of the school entrance of Grand avenue.

Tentative plans are to reorganize the Roca Basketball team to enter the park district program.

Theme of the conference is "Youth Music—Its Place in the School Music Program." Blakeley will discuss the Mississippi River Festival held on the SIU-SW campus last summer.

A student panel comprised of Kim Funk of Edwardsville and Larry Gilbert of Ferguson, Mo., will assist the professor in his discussion.

The conference is being sponsored by the Illinois office of the Superintendent of Instruction. The purpose is "to explore youth music and to reach some decisions, either individually or collectively."

Czech Professor to Teach at Campus Here

Kamil Winter, director of news for Czechoslovak television until the Russian occupation, has been named a visiting professor of the mass communications faculty at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern.

Besides conducting a seminar, "Mass Communications and Political Change," he will be available for student consulting and speaking appearances.

Prof. Winter left Czechoslovakia the week after the invasion of the country signed the agreement in Moscow. During the time the underground radio was on the air, Winter was directing the news programming.

Last year he and his wife were in England where he was a guest lecturer at the University of Sussex.

The Czech journalist spent six years as a newspaper foreign affairs columnist and editor before being forced out of the field in 1951 for political reasons. That was the time of the governmental change and the famed trials of leaders.

Chamber Orchestra Outgrows Its Name

Southern Illinois University's Chamber Orchestra at the Southwestern campus has outgrown its title, Henedforth, it will be known simply as the SIU Orchestra.

In explaining the change, Prof. Lloyd Blakeley, chairman of the music faculty at SIU, Edwardsville, said a chamber orchestra is one suited for performing in a room or a small concert hall, with usually not more than 10 solo instruments.

"For the past two years the orchestra has had almost 50 members, so, strictly speaking, it has not been a chamber group for sometime. When 70 qualified this year, we decided to drop the restrictive title."

Under the direction of Robert Schieber, the SIU Orchestra will present its first concert of the 1969-70 season Saturday at 10:30 a.m. in the Communications Building. The public is invited admission free.

Recruiting for Job Corps Begins At Local Office

A campaign to recruit youths who can be trained for worthwhile jobs through the services of the newly organized Job Corps was announced today by Malcolm A. Thompson, manager of the local office of the Illinois State Employment Service.

Youths of the ages of 16-21 inclusive, who are interested in the Job Corps are asked to visit the local Employment Service Office, 2650 Iowa street, or call, 877-0810.

The Job Corps was reorganized and brought under the U.S. Department of Labor, July 1, 1968. Thompson said that the reorganized Job Corps, enrollees will be trained fairly near their own communities. For example, most enrollees residing in the Quad-City area will be trained at Golconda, Ill., Indianapolis or Branchville, Ind., or Leona, Wisc.

In the new Job Corps more emphasis will be placed on selection of enrollees and job placement after training. Job Corps graduates will be given opportunities for job placement in such programs as the Job Opportunities in the Business Section (JOBS), Neighborhood Youth Corps (NYC), On-the-Job Training (OJT) and Manpower Development and Training Act (MDTA).

Thompson said the Labor Department expects to enroll 388,000 youths during the 1969-70 Fiscal Year.

Madison High Students Look Forward to Game

By GAIL DANDRIDGE and LINDA SOLES

Madison high school students have been restless this week, awaiting the outcome of tomorrow's game with St. Pius at 8 p.m. at Festus, Mo.

MHS tied another game Friday night. It was Mater Dei's Homecoming night and the score was 0-0. Three of Madison high's football players met with accidents. They are William Cannon, Courtney Prothro and Quarterback Douglas Smith.

The Pep Club elected two more officers last Thursday. They are Ann Young, secretary, and Agnes Hughes, treasurer. The club has chartered a bus for tomorrow night's game.

The Girls Athletic Association continued the second round of the volleyball tournament last Tuesday and will have another meeting next Tuesday.

Grades to be Posted

Yesterday ended the first six weeks at MHS, and honor roll grades will be posted soon. Many students are trying to decide on staying in or getting out of some of their classes because of unfortunate grades. The MHS newspaper, the Trojan Flashes, will be sold in the main hall tomorrow during the lunch hour for 10 cents.

The band elected two officers. They are Rick Shabo, president, and Debbie Pacheff, secretary. The vice-president and secretary will be elected later.

The band is going to march at the University of Illinois this weekend. They will be in a parade and then will perform at half-time at the football game. The selections will be "S.I.B.A.," "America the Beautiful," "Great Gate of Kiev" and "Gallant Men."

Improve Dress Code
A petition to improve the dress code has been circulating in the school concerning the length of hair. Some students think that the decision on the proper length should be left up to the individual person due to differences in fashion tastes.

Madison high has a new driver 'ed car this year, a lime green 1970 model. Students in the class this year are enjoying it thoroughly, although previous students are a bit envious. Couldn't you guess why? An assembly for the freshmen and sophomores took place last Friday. The program was on sky diving.

Eager to Study Glazed Moon Rocks

(American Association for the Advancement of Science)

One of the outstanding—and wholly unexpected—findings of the lunar stereo photographs taken by astronauts Armstrong and Aldrin was the observation of glassy or glazed surfaces on some of the moon rocks. Thomas Gold, Cornell University astronomer, reports that these glassy patches, ranging in size from one-half to ten millimeters across, may have been caused by high-intensity radiation heating.

Other explanations, such as melting by rocket flame, splashing of liquid drops, volcanism, cannot account for all the features of glazed rocks.

Among other peculiarities, these rocks are found only in small craters (up to a meter or so in diameter) and only on the top and sides of protuberances.

In some cases, it appears that droplets of the molten glaze ran down an inclined surface and then congealed.

Unfortunately, none of these glazed rocks were brought back to earth.

If a flash of radiation heating caused this glazing, it would have to have been in the relatively recent past, says Dr. Gold. Otherwise, the meteorites would have sandblasted and destroyed the glaze, or lunar soil movements would have covered them up.

Estimates of the recency of the glazing range from 30,000 to 100,000 years ago—only yesterday on the geophysical time scale.

But what was the source of the radiation—a fireball plunging into the moon or earth, or a flash from the sun?

The most likely possibility, suggests Dr. Gold, is that there occurred a very minor nova-like outburst in the moon's atmosphere.

Analysis of lunar samples brought back by Apollo 11 may shed some light on this phenomenon, but the solution may hinge on findings of future Apollo missions.

pation warrants, for which interest must be paid.

Efforts to reduce costs and improve efficiency will need to be made in other systems confronted with deficits and the prospect of further cost increases in the future; new rounds of employee agreement negotiations are scheduled during the spring of 1970.

These efforts can and should include study of the present average class size, appeals for organizational and legislative support for law changes to permit greater flexibility in the bidding wherever possible and introduction of new techniques to raise the "productivity level" of Venice teachers.

There is no reason why such steps could not be taken regardless of whether voters permit the board to raise the education rate and end costly borrowing. Our hope is that Venice voters can "Yes" ballot Saturday and that school officials simultaneously accelerate their activities to make further rate hikes unnecessary for a number of years.

Horseshoe Lake State Park Approval Fulfills Citizens' Dream and Objective of Many Years

A Horseshoe Lake state park will become a reality, thanks to the favorable action by Governor Ogilvie last night. The governor approved legislation which the local lake will be added to the Illinois park system and funds will be provided immediately to purchase about 1700 acres of the lake bed and adjacent land.

It was fitting that members of the Horseshoe Lake Area Commission, headed by Henry D. Karandjef, were present for the signing along with Illinois legislators from this region. His persistence and tenacity inspired many of the supporters to continue their efforts, eventually tipping the scales from apparent defeat to achievement of the dream.

The largest natural body of water in this section of the nation, Horseshoe Lake many years ago was the principal site of evening and weekend outings enjoyed by Quad-Cityans and others. Its use has decreased, but its active leadership by the state government it can be made ideal once again for swimming, boating, fishing, picnics and holiday observances as well as serving as a conservancy area, aquatic recreation center and wildlife refuge.

The wait has been a long one, but the dividends can be large. The park is being established at a time when aquatic areas are still available and when acquisition costs have not yet soared out of sight.

It is well that the Horseshoe Lake campaign has met its success in 1969, because industrial, airport and subdivision development plans are rapidly eliminating the "wide open spaces" of Madison and St. Clair counties and causing intense competition for property.

Now that the Horseshoe Lake project has been achieved in the initial phase, attention will focus not only on implementation of what has been authorized, but also on carrying out the plan to fully live up to its outstanding promise.

Japan and U. S., Capable of Economic and Space Miracles, Face Challenges of Environment, Social Order, Traffic, Deprivation

By U. S. SENATOR CHARLES H. PERCY

(During the August Congressional session, Senator Percy of Illinois and his family spent three weeks traveling in Japan. This is the last of four articles by him recalling highlights of the tour.)

Japan has played a special role in my efforts as a businessman to expand world trade ties. As President of Illinois-based Bell & Howell, I must be able to organize a Japanese affiliate.

After a considerable amount of negotiation, my former company succeeded in complying with the rules governing foreign firms that invest in Japan.

This joint American-Japanese venture now employs approximately 1000 persons and is a commercial success for the United States as well as Japan. Employment and sales in the United States have steadily increased throughout this period.

It is with this background that, one fine segment of our world tour, we traveled to Shioma, Japan, to participate in the Second Japanese-American Assembly.

At this meeting, some 35 Japanese leaders in business, government, publishing, education and other areas joined with a like number of Americans to discuss a range of problems that currently affect relations between the United States and Japan.

The main topics that I raised were: (1) the economic consequences of Japan's emergence as a world economic power and (2) the effect of Japan's rapid growth on the world economy.

Each week brings a fresh appraisal of the progress to date in restrictive controls on a wider range of Japanese imports.

Each month brings fresh draft trade barriers more appropriate to a country that is in its initial stages of economic growth.

An adverse reaction to this disparity is growing within the American business community that, one fine segment of our world tour, we traveled to Shioma, Japan, to participate in the Second Japanese-American Assembly.

Lunch Seminars Set At Carbondale Campus

Since the fall of 1968, the Student Christian Foundation on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, has sponsored luncheon seminars six weeks a quarter, except the summer quarter, attracting faculty, students and townspeople.

The 40-minute discussion period on subjects ranging from campus ministry, international affairs, university activities, theater, arts and political and social philosophy has had the attendance of about 1000 persons each quarter last year, the Rev. Allen Line, foundation director, said.

Seminars begin at 12:15 p.m. and end in time for 1 p.m. classes. Subjects for discussion vary from quarter to quarter and even from day to day. This quarter's schedule features "Design for Ministry," "Red China, Friend or Foe?" "University Agenda, Open or Closed?" "Chips and Sandwich Theater," and "Peace with Justice, Herculean Task or Utopian Dream?" Because of public interest in black political and social philosophies a special Thursday night series has been added to the foundation's program this quarter. The evening seminars, starting at 9, will deal with such topics as black nationalism, black capitalism and black liberation.

GC Sailor Hopes to Receive More Mail

A young Granite City sailor who last December received only one Christmas card, has submitted his name to the Press-Record's "Yule Mail Call," expressing optimism that he will hear from more people this year.

Individuals and clubs are invited to clip-out the names and addresses of Quad-City servicemen appearing in each issue of the Press-Record, adding the names to their Christmas mailing lists.

Through the pre-Christmas service, it is hoped that readers will send cards, letters or gift packages to the Armed Forces members, thereby helping to lighten their spirits while away from home and loved ones during the coming holiday season.

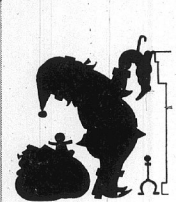

Addresses of local servicemen and women still are being accepted for inclusion in the Yule Mail Call. Those submitting a serviceman's name are asked to write the details on a postal card, letter or slip of paper and mail or bring the information to the Press-Record office, 1815 Delmar avenue.

L. C. Rodgers, a Granite City sailor serving aboard USS Forrest Royal, a destroyer, said in his letter:

"I am submitting my name to your Yule Mail Call once again. I hope to say it, but all I got last year was one Christmas card, so I thought I would try once again.

"I have been in the Navy for almost two years. I am aboard the USS Forrest Royal, a destroyer, and we have been on a few cruises to the Virgin Islands and Guantanamo, Cuba. We are planning to get under way Nov. 13 for a seven-month cruise to the Red Sea. It will be my second Christmas away from my family and friends and a little cheer sure would be nice.

Press-Record's ... YULE MAIL CALL (Clip and Save)

"We are planning to be off the coast of India for the Christmas holidays. So please print my name in this year's Yule Mail Call.

Chief Warrant Officer Michael S. Lopez, whose address also appears in today's list, wrote that his new assignment in the Information Office of the First Aviation Brigade, will take him to all sections of Vietnam.

Using the Press-Record's Yule Mail lists and a master list of APO numbers available to him that designates the area of Vietnam in which the individual soldier, marine, airman or sailor is serving, CWO Lopez plans to contact as many local servicemen as possible during his travels, he wrote the newspaper last week.

A former Press-Record photographer, the U.S. Army helicopter pilot presently is serving his second tour of duty in Vietnam. He is a graduate of Venice high school and son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen J. Lopez of Glen Carbon, formerly of Venice.

Persons contributing a name to Yule Mail Call are asked to identify themselves on the postal card or letter, in the event verification of complex unit numbers is necessary.

It is important to list the serviceman's name, rank, serial number and full address, including APO or FPO when applicable. The area of service may be noted in parenthesis following the address, if desired.

The Press-Record's listing is open to all military personnel stationed overseas and at home. In the past three years, more than 1700 names and addresses of local servicemen and women have been published prior to the Yule holidays.

Specialist Proves You Can Get Rich in Army

There's an old saying that you'll never get rich in the Army, but Sp6 Darrel D. Burtlow of Des Moines, Iowa, whose wife Linda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Brown of Granite City, has gone a long way toward proving otherwise.

Burtlow, who is stationed in Karlsruhe, Germany, as a microwave systems tactical repairman with the Transportable Communications Co. Signal Battalion 102, got a good start in that direction when he enlisted recently for his present duty assignment and a $10,500 bonus.

The 22-year-old specialist who joined the service in October 1966 took his training as a microwave repairman at Fort Monmouth, N. J., and went to Germany in October 1967. He received a series of promotions to Specialist 5 and was joined by his wife in Germany in October 1968.

Burtlow, scheduled for a trip to the states soon, plans to invest his bonus money in a Wall Street after consulting a good broker. He said he hopes to gain entry to the Army's satellite communications school at Fort Monmouth and find a place in space-age communications.

Meter Revenue Running Behind Last Year's

Revenue from operation of parking meters in Granite City during September fell off $80 below that for the previous month of August, but showed an increase of $183 over collections for September 1968, according to a report by Comptroller Robert Stevens.

Fee collections from meters amounted to $2900 last month, while fines assessed for meter violations totaled $938. During August, fee collections were $2850, but fines amounted to $1788.

Total September collections brought to $4,336 the total income from meter operation during the first nine months of this year, a drop of $231 below the $36,887 revenue during the same period of last year.

Both fee and fine collections for the nine-month period this year have been running behind that of the same 1968 period. This year's fee collections for the period January through September total $35,720 compared to $27,950 for the same period last year.

Fine collections for the nine months this year total $836 compared to $837 for the same period last year, records show. Meters operated 25 days of the month during September, resulting in daily average income of $153. During August, when meters operated 26 days, the daily average income was $178.

4-Block Area Hospital Predicted for 2069

A hospital covering a four block area with a special "time-visual department" replacing the x-ray department and a cure for cancer are predicted by a hospital employee who wrote the prize winning essay, "What St. Elizabeth Hospital will Look Like in 100 Years."

A copy of the essay, written by Mrs. Lorene Fox, 2506 Sunset drive, will be placed inside the new annex cornerstone, which is to be set in place in a special ceremony Saturday.

Mrs. Fox, whose husband, Joseph, is a Granite City Steel Co. employee, is a correspondence clerk in the hospital's medical records section. She is the mother of three children.

The text of her prize winning essay follows:

"The year 2069 is really a great year.

"We have progressed much in the past 100 years since the average Granite Cityan.

Space travel certainly has affected the world of medicine. My great-grandmother used to work at St. Elizabeth's in the Medical Record Department exactly 100 years ago. You just wouldn't believe the old pictures of the hospital.

"The hospital was very small then—only covered one block. Now it covers a four block area, from 20th Street to Washington, all the way to Niedringhaus on the East side.

That doesn't include the parking garage, which is a five-deck building covering the whole block of Niedringhaus to 22nd street and Iowa.

"Can you imagine having to walk all the way from the parking garage? Now we just step onto a sliding conveyor, and there we are. And all that time they must have spent waiting on what they called 'elevators'!" Now we step into one of the myriad zoom capsules that line our walls and zoom quickly to any floor.

All the buildings are windowless; the heat, air and light being automatically controlled.

"Housekeeping in 100 years has been a problem 100 years ago. It's still not easy, but the ray gun which disintegrates all waste material, plus poisoning the floors and walls, without any stopping or bending, saves so much work. Kitchen work is easier now, I'm sure. We feed 2000 people in a matter of minutes.

with the new "gastrointestinal method."

"Do you see that beautiful colored fountain on the forever green artificial lawn, that's where the very first old section stood? See, there's a plaque in front of the fountain. It reads, 'To the Sisters of Divine Providence, whose Providence is Truly Divine.'

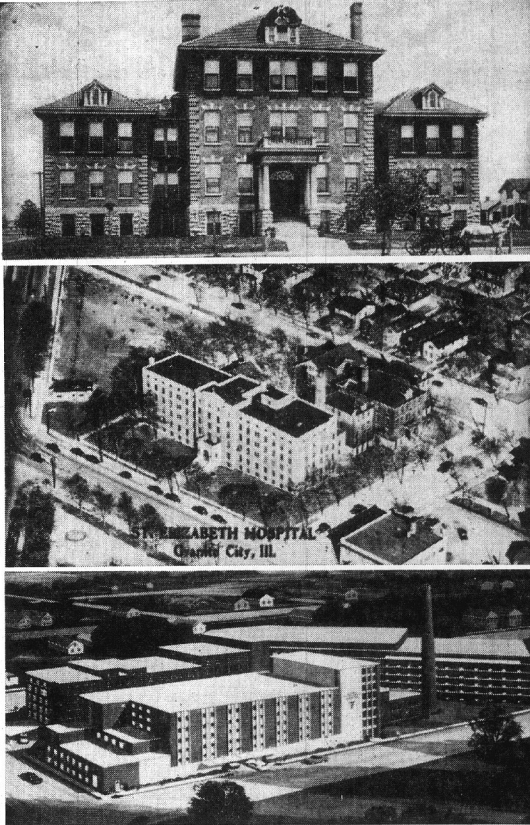

"A doctor's dream, 100 years ago, was to find a cure for cancer. The cure was found about 75 years ago, but there has always been, and probably always will be, dread disease to combat.

"What used to be the X-Ray Department is now the 'Time-Visual Department.' After the patient swallows a pill, doctors can look directly into the patient. The wing along 20th and Iowa is the sight of heart, lung, kidney and liver transplants every day.

"The Medical Record Department, in which my great-grandmother worked must have been a busy place. Now all records are kept by computers, and just by pushing a few buttons a doctor can have the complete record of any patient in ten seconds. To dictate reports, the doctor speaks into a computer which writes, microfilms and files the report.

"With all the progress and automation, the main ingredient that has always been first and foremost is still at St. Elizabeth's, and that is its love and concern for the patients who come to them for help. Its motto is still, as it was 100 years ago, 'We serve God by serving mankind!'"

Hospital Growth over the Years

Indian Guide Organizational Session Tonight

An organizational "pow-wow" for Granite City fathers wishing to join the "Y" Indian Guides father and son program will be held at 7:30 tonight at the Tri-City Area YMCA, Marvin E. Van Metre, executive director, reported this week.

The "pow wow" will include an explanation of tribe activity and formation as well as exhibits of tribe equipment, Van Metre said.

Participation in the Indian Guides program is open to boys now attending first and second grades.

Van Metre reported that the Y-Indian Guides include more than 225,000 large and small "braves" from coast-to-coast. He commented, "the program's basic purpose is to multiply the number of activities that fathers and sons can enjoy together."

Over 100 fathers and sons were active in local tribes last year. Tribes of six to eight "couples" meet in rotation at homes twice monthly; tribal sessions are kept brief and simple, with major emphasis on "just doing things together."

Occasional field trips are taken by the tribes to varied points of interest, and weekend encampments also play a popular part in the group activity, Van Metre said.

Since there are no rigid tests or achievements for boys to accomplish, each tribe develops its own program within a framework found to be most beneficial from experience dating back to 1925, when the program was launched by the St. Louis YMCA.

The director added, "The Y-Indian Guide program is geared for the busy but thinking father who desires to spend more time with his son."

Madison Flies Flags to Oppose Moratorium Here

The city of Madison flew the American "stars and stripes" yesterday in opposition to the controversial nation-wide peace moratorium. The action was at the request of Mayor Stephen Maestas and the city council.

At a council meeting Tuesday night, the mayor said, "I do think the moratorium is the way to approach this. If we don't like the way our representatives (in Congress) are handling this situation, we can vote them out and elect somebody else."

He requested that all residents of the city display their flags to let them (the marchers) "know that we are Americans. We are for peace as soon as possible, but we should let Congress handle it."

The council approved a three-year lease-purchase agreement with Drake Scruggs Equipment Co., Inc., of Springfield for use of a chipper machine, with payments of $113 per month. Ownership of the equipment will revert to the city after 36 months.

Also approved was a request by S. C. Ward Alderman Richard Kismet to install a light in the alley between Second and Third streets, bounded by Alton and Highland avenues.

An easement was granted to the St. Louis Metropolitan Sewer District to place a sewer line across city-owned bridge property.

'The Mission' to Appear In Concert at 'Y' Saturday

A nationally known folk-rock group, composed of six seminarians studying to be Catholic priests, will appear at the local YMCA Saturday night starting at 8 p.m.

The group, known as "The Mission," has appeared on such national TV shows as Ed Sullivan, Joey Bishop, Steve Allen, Merv Griffin and others. The seminarians are currently doing their studies at St. Louis University, while living and working with the people in the St. Louis ghettos.

Following the musical concert, which will be held in the YMCA gym, Brother Cassidy will discuss briefly the work that "The

Lose 10 Lbs. In 10 Days on New Grapefruit Diet

This is the revolutionary new grapefruit diet that everyone is suddenly talking about. Literally thousands upon thousands of copies have been passed from hand to hand in factories, plants and offices throughout the U.S. and Canada. Word of its success has spread like wildfire, because this is the one diet that really seems to work for most overweight people. A well known Toronto columnist recently praised it to the skies. He reported losing 20 pounds quickly and easily long after he had stopped eating grapefruit. He said his wartime weight of 165 pounds. All this without cutting out the occasional beer or rum. If it is followed exactly the average overweight person should lose 10 pounds in 10 days. There will be no weight loss in the first four days. But you will suddenly drop 5 pounds on the 5th day. Thereafter you will lose one pound every two days until the 10th day. Then you will lose 1 1/2 pounds every two days until you get down to your proper weight. Best of all there should be no hunger pains. Now revised and enlarged, this new diet plan lets you stuff yourself with foods that were formerly "forbidden." Such as big steaks trimmed with fat, Southern fried chicken, rich gravies, mayonnaise, lobster, swimming in butter, bacon, fish, sausage and scrambled eggs. You can eat until you are full, until you can't possibly eat any more. And still you should lose 10 pounds in the first 10 days, plus 1 1/2 pounds every two days thereafter until your weight is down to normal. The secret behind this new "Quick weight loss" is not generally known. Fat, it has been theorized, does not burn fast. Perhaps fat fights fat. And the grapefruit juice in this new diet might act as a catalyst (the "trigger") to start the fat burning process. You stuff food to self on the permitted foods listed in the diet plan, and still lose weight. The fat and blood are gone you will cease to lose weight. A copy of this new and startling successful diet plan can be obtained by sending $3 to

Pro Wrestler to Talk At 1st Church of God

John Paul Henning, a professional wrestler, will be in a different role at 7:30 p.m. Sunday when he delivers a sermon at the First Church of God, 2910 Pershing avenue. Rev. George Williamson is the pastor.

The 240-pound athlete, who is six feet three inches tall, aspires to be an evangelist in addition to his duties in the ring and his operation of a health club in Alton. He and his wife, Peggy, reside in Beetham. He was a Navy "frog man" during the Korean war.

Choosing Rev. Billy Graham as his ideal, Henning sees an increased need for religious activities due to war, teenage and social unrest. He seeks to convince listeners that "there is a love in Heaven and the world can prosper and everyone can be friends without wars and conflicts."

Critically hurt in an auto crash near Denton, Tex., six days before Easter in 1966, Henning decided while recuperating to become an active church speaker.

Master Driving Certificate For Sp/5 Shannon Wilson

Army Specialist Five Shannon Wilson Jr., 34, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Wilson, live at 123 Booker street, Madison, was awarded a Certificate of Achievement for master driver with the 56th Transportation Company near Long Binh, Vietnam.

Spec. 5 Wilson received the award for driving military vehicles more than 12,000 miles with no accidents or traffic violations. He entered the Army in 1963 and arrived overseas in 1967.

Throat Culture School Program Will Continue

A throat culture program credited with helping students avoid rheumatic fever and rheumatic heart disease will continue in Granite City public and parochial schools despite the ending of participation by the Heart Association.

The Heart Association in dropping the throat culture service cited a decision to direct funds toward a major attack on atherosclerosis.

A review of the outlook by the Granite City school board Monday night resulted in a decision to continue the local program under which a faculty member processes throat culture plates, permitting immediate medical diagnosis. Last year, plates from the school district and from the St. Elizabeth and Sacred Heart schools totaled 1867.

Expenses in 1968-70 are expected to be $388 for services and $640 for the plates.

SCOUTS PLAN HAYRIDE

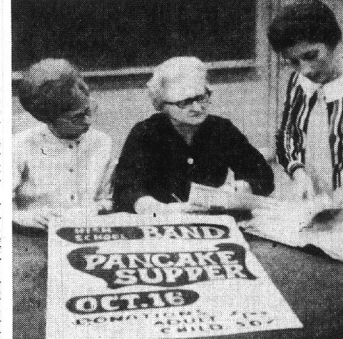

The Junior Girl Scout troop sponsored by the Webster PTA met at the school Monday afternoon to practice a flag ceremony for a PTA meeting under the direction of the leaders, Mrs. Mae Lee and Mrs. Elizabeth Griffin.

The Space Cadettes patrol called the meeting to order with a flag ceremony as the scouts repeated in unison the pledge of allegiance and promise and sang, "Girl Scouts Together."

Triotic songs for formal openings. The troop repeated the ten laws and an open discussion was held on their meaning. Also discussed were the scout motto and slogan and how they can be applied to daily use. Work continued on the hospitality badge and Mrs. Lee gave a demonstration on formal and informal table settings.

Plans were made for a hike next week and a hayride later this month. The following scouts were selected to participate in the PTA flag ceremony: Karol Lee, Linda Pool, Mary Kay Chapline, Becky Schorheide and Corina Kuhn. A game, "Sisters," was played and the meeting ended with singing of "Taps" and the scoutmaster prayer.

Others present were Tammy Oberly, Enid Cox, Danna and Tammy DePew, Tammy Fritts, Carole Griffin, Donna Long, Anita McGee, Shirley Money, Pamela Sartin, Shelby Siebert, Leisa Tervasi, Karen Tolin, Janice Van Gilder, Susan Welby, Pam Williams, Vickie Williams, Pam York and a new member, Shirley Patton.

GC Band Parents Pancake Supper Set for Today

Final plans for the seventh annual pancake supper to be given this evening by the Band Parents Association of the Granite City high school in the school cafeteria were made at a meeting Tuesday evening presided over by Melvin Gillie, president.

The band now consists of 140 students and the first concert is to be held Dec. 11. Sustaining membership tickets, together with regular concert tickets, will soon go on sale to the public.

Joseph Owens announced the last half-time show by the marching band will be held Friday. The theme of the show is "Broadway Musicals."

The chairmen of the pancake supper noted that the proceeds from the supper would enable the band to go on tour this spring. Tickets will also be on sale at the door. They will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for children. Serving will begin at 5 p.m. and continue until 8 p.m.

A social hour followed the meeting Tuesday evening, attended by about 50 members. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Gillie and Mrs. Carl Mathias.

GC Salvage Firm Named in Air Pollution Suit

A suit against a Granite City auto salvage firm to force a halt in open burning operations was among five legal actions instituted at Springfield Tuesday by Atty. Gen. William J. Scott in the first action by his office against alleged violators of air pollution control laws.

The other suits were directed against two other firms and two municipalities—the village of Tolono and the city of McLeansboro.

Assistant Atty. Gen. James Koehner of Belleville, recently named chief of the Southern Illinois pollution control division, said a suit was filed against Joseph Ousley, doing business as the West Side Auto Salvage, 2700 Highway 67, Granite City.

Koehner said the suit alleges that the firm was subject of a state air pollution control board hearing as long ago as Sept. 22, 1968, in which it was charged with open burning violations.

The petition asks that the firm be permanently enjoined from polluting and contaminating the air.

The suit against the village of Tolono charges violation of the garbage dumps statutes by permitting garbage to remain in the open after being dumped in a landfill. McLeansboro is charged with maintaining a dump in which there has been open dumping, open burning and rat infestation.

The other two firms named in suits were the Rowe Construction Co. of Bloomington, charged with polluting Kickapoo Creek with sewage, and Frank Sheppard & Son, a salvage operation in Berlin, Ill.

Registration Deadline is Friday on Con-Con Vote

Three remaining special registration centers will be conducted by the county clerk's office in the Quad-City area today and tomorrow to complete registration work for the Nov. 18 election of delegates to the Illinois Constitutional convention.

The registration periods will complete a series of 18 such special centers conducted throughout the area during the past two weeks for the convenience of newly qualified voters who had not yet registered and those persons who are registered but who must update their existing records by change of name or change of address.

Today's special registration center was scheduled at the New-Way Grocery, 1061 Douglas street, which opened at 10 a.m. today and will continue until 5 p.m.

Qualified persons may register or change their records tomorrow at either of two special centers: at the First Granite City National Bank from 4 to 7 p.m., and at the Thurber Agency, 1002 State street, from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Deadline for registration for the Nov. 18 balloting, in which voters of the 53rd Senatorial District will elect two delegates to the constitutional convention, is Friday. Persons who fail to register or correct their records by that time will be ineligible to vote.

Marriage Enrichment Program to be Conducted

The first in a series of six Marriage Enrichment weekends scheduled for the 1969-70 season at the Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows will be held from Oct. 24-26.

This first MEW will be unique in that it will be conducted by a couple, Mr. and Mrs. Urban G. Steinmetz of Escanaba, Mich., with the assistance of Rev. Alexander Burak, executive director of the Laymen's Foundation of the Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows.

Mr. Steinmetz, executive director of the Marriage Enrichment League, has a Masters Degree from Northern Michigan University and is the author of two books and also articles on marriage.

Marriage Enrichment weekends afford everyone participating an opportunity to take part in the discussion and question and answer periods. Thorough exploration of the topic or theme is encouraged so that each person and couple can appreciate how the message of the person or persons moderating can be made a part of their life in relation to their family, church and community at large. The program is designed to enable husbands and wives to get away for a weekend to reflect together on their Christian lives in today's world, and to find help in making the important decisions their daily lives demand.

Couples will be lodged at Pilgrim Inn and served meals in St. Joseph's Hall. Meetings are scheduled to be held in the conference room at St. Joseph's Hall.

The only other MEW scheduled this fall will be from Nov. 7 to Nov. 9 and will feature Rev. Dennis J. Geaney, O.S.A., director of Field Education for the Catholic Theological Union.

Additional information about the program may be obtained by writing or calling the Laymen's Foundation, Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows, Belleville, Ill. 62223—phone 233-2238 or toll free in St. Louis 214-3400.

State Demonstration Center Established at School Here

Ray Page, Illinois Superintendent of Public Instruction, this week announced that Parkview elementary school in Granite City will be the site of a Service and Demonstration Center for gifted students during the 1969-70 school year.

Service and Demonstration Centers, operated under the auspices of the Department of Program Development for Gifted Children, Division of Special Education Services, serve the schools of a given area by providing convincing and readily accessible demonstrations of one of a number of approaches to the education of gifted and talented children.

Parkview school, under the direction of Mrs. Agnes Frymko, principal, joined a select group of 22 schools in Illinois designated as Service and Demonstration Centers and is one of only three new centers for this school year.

The selection of such centers is based on the effectiveness and uniqueness of the educational program offered in the schools.

Expect Hundreds of Visitors

W. Richard Brinkhoff, director of the Service and Demonstration Center, will host visitors wishing to gain first-hand knowledge of the continuous progress program and the special underachievement class.

In addition, he will serve as a consultant to school districts throughout the state wishing to inaugurate special programs for gifted children.

"Having one of our elementary schools serve as a center is not only an honor for the Granite City school district but will draw between 400 to 600 visitors here during the school year," Brinkhoff said this week.

$33,364 from State The local community unit school district has been awarded $33,364 by the Office of Public Instruction to conduct the Service and Demonstration Center for the current school year.

In conjunction with the program, three Granite City school employees conducted a workshop in New Salem, Ill., for more than 40 teachers and administrators in the Jacksonville, Ill., school district Oct. 9 and 10. The workshop was held to help Jacksonville teachers learn more about the continuous progress program currently in use in some of the Granite City schools, aiding them in their attempt to individualize instruction.

Mrs. Leounda Johnson, Parkview primary teacher, Mrs. Sally Sowell, director of the gifted program, and Brinkhoff, represented the Granite City schools and the State Service and Demonstration Center.

They approached the subject of improving the educational program for the individual child from the standpoint of the role of the teacher, administrator and the workshop was funded through the Department of Program Development for Gifted Children, Office of Public Instruction.

Park's Roller Skating Program to Begin

A fall and winter indoor roller skating program will begin next Tuesday at the Stoppage Roller Rink, 19th street and Cleveland blvd., under the auspices of the Granite City park district.

For the tenth successive year, the program will be made available free of charge to residents of the park district in grades three through nine. Participants who do not have their own rink skates may rent them at the roller rink for 25 cents per session. Harold Brown, park superintendent, said today.

No prior registration is required for the skating program to be held from 4 to 5:30 p.m. each Tuesday through next March 3, with exception of the Christmas holiday period when sessions will be cancelled Dec. 23 and Dec. 30.

Youngsters taking part in the roller skating series will be supervised by qualified personnel, Brown said. An average attendance of nearly 150 skaters per session was recorded in previous seasons.

Kindergarten Evaluation

At Monday night's Granite City school board meeting, approval was given to use a $100 state grant to employ an outside consultant to help evaluate the demonstrated kindergarten program at the Parkview Service and Demonstration Center.

Granite City and Signal Hill school's will jointly utilize Dr. David Bear of Southern Illinois University; the $3000 fund will enable him to employ various consultants and finance their and his travel expenses.

The plan was described by Brinkhoff as an "opportunity to gain authoritative help in determining how effectively we are meeting the goals of our kindergarten program."

"Each center is asked to establish an evaluation program, and no pre-set rules or goals are established by the state."

"Because of the similarity of a number of Granite City's kindergarten programs, evaluation of the demonstration program should give a fair indication of the effectiveness of our total kindergarten program in the district."

Record Earnings Likely This Year For A. O. Smith

Earnings of A. O. Smith Corp. in the third quarter of 1969 increased 31% over the same period last year, while profits for the first nine months of the year were up 35% over 1968. These results were reported this week by L. B. Smith, chairman and chief executive officer. The firm operates a major auto frame plant here.

Smith said earnings for the third quarter were $2,656,000, or $1.06 per share, compared to $2,024,000, or 81 cents per share in the 1968 third quarter. Earnings for the first nine months of 1969 were $10,674,000, or $4.27 per share, compared to $8,015,000 or $3.22 in the same period last year.

"The outlook for the company for the remainder of 1969 looks good," Smith said, "it will be our fifth consecutive year of increasing profits and should also be a record earnings year for A. O. Smith, exceeding our previous high of $5.26 per share in 1959."

Sales for the third quarter were $79,100,000, compared to $63,798,000 last year. Sales for the nine months totaled $260,192,000, compared to $252,437,000 in 1968. Sales figures were lower this year because of the transfer of certain operations to affiliate firms. Sales of affiliates are not consolidated in A. O. Smith statements, but earnings are reflected on an equity in earnings basis.

Smith pointed out the Automotive, Consumer Products and Electric Motor divisions and A. O. Smith Harvester Products for turning in particularly good performances in both sales and profits.

Acquisition Under Way

A highlight of the third quarter, Smith said, was acquisition of a majority interest in the Layne & Bowler Pump Co. of Los Angeles.

Layne & Bowler manufactures vertical turbine pumps and other pivot irrigation systems. Its Raincoat center pivot agricultural irrigation system is considered a leader in a market expected to grow at a rate of 20% per year.

Smith also said that during the quarter A. O. Smith Harvester Products, a wholly-owned subsidiary, reached agreement with Rotary Hoes, Ltd., of England, to form Howard Harvester, Ltd., a joint enterprise company, to manufacture and market harvesters, livestock feed storage and processing systems throughout the world except for North America. The agreement is subject to approval by the Internal Revenue Service.

Walker Named House Speaker as Assembly Meets

State Rep. Jack E. Walker (R-Lansing) took over as Speaker of the Illinois House Tuesday to succeed Ralph T. Smith of Alton who was appointed U. S. Senator a month ago.

Walker, chosen for the spot by Republican House leaders, assumed his duties as the General Assembly convened for an abbreviated five-day session. The House and Senate were in session only three and a half hours, then recessed until next Tuesday when both houses expect to remain in session four days.

While a total of 58 bills were introduced—ten in the Senate and 48 in the House—only four appear certain of passage during the current brief session. Of the ten bills introduced in the Senate, two administration measures and two agreed bills were advanced to second reading without being sent to committees. In the House, all 48 new bills were sent to committee.

House Speaker Walker is serving his sixth term in the House and had been majority leader during the regular legislative session last summer. He was sworn into office by Chief Justice Robert C. Underwood of the Supreme Court.

Names Majority Leader

Walker named Rep. Lewis Morgan (R-Wheaton) as majority leader. Rep. Raymond E. Anderson (R-Galesburg) will continue as assistant majority leader and Rep. Arthur Telser (R-Chicago) will serve as party whip.

Walker will serve as speaker until January 1971 when the next

NOTICE TO THE GENERAL PUBLIC

(How Safe Is Your Money?)

MOST REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS usually involve rather large sums of money (thousands and thousands of dollars) changing hands. As a matter of fact, Real Estate may be the largest and most important single "money deal" in most people's lives.

"SO HOW SAFE IS YOUR MONEY?" Most folks would be horrified if you accused them of being gamblers, or of playing "Russian Roulette" with their own money. Yet people in "Blind Faith" will hand their money, or sign Legal Documents over to perfect strangers or slight acquaintances simply because they read an ad in the paper or they see a sign over a door. "WHY?" Because most folks want to trust people they do business with. And, in most cases fortunately they are justified.

BUT, WHAT ABOUT THAT ONE TIME, something goes wrong — "A Life Savings Wiped Out," thru their ignorance or intent to defraud. Sad, but true, it can and does happen. Of course folks will say "There are laws to protect us." True, but "Can you get blood out of a turnip?"

AS REALTORS, it is not our intent to point a finger at anyone in our line of business, or alarm the General Public. But certainly in the interest of our Profession, we feel the General Public when doing business with any Real Estate Man (no exceptions) should check and get some answers to "How Safe Is My Money?" After all, it's your money. Check Character, Reputation, Business Experience, Financial Ability (ask your Lawyer or Banker) and Know How. Also, are there built-in "safeguards" in the event of Disavowment, Bankruptcy, Death, Larceny. Will my money be kept in a separate "Escrow Account" (required by law)? Finally, are my Legal Papers safe from Fire, Theft, Carelessness?

We believe "REALTORS" will check out 100%
